OMNi TELiX
Sharing a calendar, events, reminders

Working with Calendars in Telix is easy, friendly, fully synchronized with your mobile devices and you may create as many calendars as you need. Sometimes though you may want to share your calendar to collaborate with others on events, reminders, busy time.

To share a calendar, right click on the name and select one or more Telix users. You may specify whether they have full rights (i.e., may add/change events) or they just view this calendar. Sharing takes place immediately and may be synchronized with all the mobile devices of persons in the shared group.

Managing multiple personal and shared calendars is easy with Telix. Events are presented in a combined view, and you may select just one calendar to focus when needed.

Omni Telix users are taking advantage of calendaring to schedule events and busy time, keep track of a meeting room availability, collaborate within a closed group, plan a trip and related meetings, office presence/on-leave, receive reminders in the office and their mobile device on the go.
